Vandalism Results in Increased Presence at Area Schools

HANOVER, Va. – The Hanover County Sheriff's Office has increased uniform presence at Lee Davis High School and Liberty Middle School after discovery of vandalism in bathrooms at both schools.

The incidents resemble similar acts of vandalism that were recently reported by area media outlets. There is no information to indicate there is a credible threat, however, as a common practice there will be an increase in the presence of uniform officers at both schools.
