Arrests Made in Multiple Mail Larcenies

HANOVER, Va. – Deputies with the Hanover County Sheriff's Office have arrested Marcus Manley, 28, Ahjuwon Owens, 30, Cecil Johnson, 31, and Antoine Ackin, 31, all from North Carolina, in connection with a series of mail larcenies that occurred in the Hanover County Air Park on January 14, 2016. All subjects have been charged with multiple counts of petit larceny, grand larceny, and possession of stolen bank notes. Owens, Johnson, and Ackin are currently being held at the Pamunkey Regional Jail in Hanover County.

The larcenies occurred during the evening hours of January 14, 2016. As of this date 10 victims have been identified in Hanover County. Investigators continue to work diligently to recover stolen mail, identify additional victims in Hanover County, and assist the United States Postal Inspection Service with identifying victims from Maryland to North Carolina.

"I'm exceptionally proud of the dedication and teamwork of everyone involved who helped to solve these cases. More importantly, I'm pleased that we are able to stop these crimes while they were in progress. I would like to extend my sincere appreciation to the United States Postal Inspection Service for their assistance and cooperation during this investigation," said Colonel David R. Hines, sheriff.

If you believe you have been a victim of a mail larceny in Hanover County, contact the Hanover County Sheriff's Office at 804-365-6140.
